

International marketing plan to reduce investment risks for SMEs

on August 12th 2010

An international marketing plan can help SMEs understand the target consumer segment better and reduce risks associated with business expansion in overseas destinations...