www.BuyWebkinzWorldwide.com is becoming well known around the world due to their selection of low prices and their commitment to quick & personal service. Business owner Alan Kowalke has taken the next step in growing his business by starting a blog at <http://buywebkinzworldwide.storeblogs.com/> and being a part of Facebook at <http://www.facebook.com/pages/Buy-Webkinz-Worldwide/255178443429?ref=mf>. In creating these, Alan hopes to further create an atmosphere full of information for Webkinz and Webkinz related items and get even closer to being like face to face to others worldwide. "My 3 & 6 year olds mean the world to us and I didn't want to miss out being around them," Alan explains as he details the origins of Buy Webkinz Worldwide. "I quickly realized how some children really take a liking to these Webkinz and can be a great conversation starter from Parents/Grandparents. They blow off the door of standard kids' answers of "it was okay", etc. From all of the stories we have heard, which by the way my girls absolutely love hearing, only enhances our experience. Great bonding experience with kids before they grow up as we all know they will grow up quicker than we would care to see. I decided to start Buy Webkinz Worldwide as a great way to get New and Retired Webkinz at reasonable prices to people all over the world." Answering the need for the public, Alan quickly found the market for his products, and over the course of a year he has built up a loyal customer base for his deals everything Webkinz in the Webkinz World. But just offering the products at low prices wasn't where Alan wanted to stop. Talking with Alan you truly do get the sense that he is talking from the heart and follows it up with action. "It's been amazing to meet people from all parts of the world including all over the United States to learn just how difficult it is to find some of these Webkinz around them," says Alan. "I could go on and on about the different stories such as kids pretending to teach all of the Webkinz things like math, reading, etc to then have playtime on the computer together, which actually is a great learning tool for the kids. Or even adults buying the Webkinz for themselves after they fell in love helping their kids take care of theirs online. Then buying them for their friends and coworkers to see them fall in love as well." The ritual that his little girls follow is such an amazing thing to see. "My girls absolutely insist on patting the heads of each Webkinz leaving our warehouse. They tell each one to either stay warm and/or not be scared as they will be in loving arms soon enough. What is completely amazing is that they do not beg for themselves. They have told me on more than one occasion that they consider themselves to be the little elves helping Santa deliver the Webkinz to the good little girls and boys of the world. They strongly believe it and the oldest even has desires of taking over as many things as she can from me for this business as she wants me to sit back and relax." Alan truly understands what it is like to have little kids, so he will do what he can to speed it up to get them into loving arms. "As a parent myself, I realize the need to take care of things ASAP. Just waiting for a package to arrive in the mail can seem like an eternity to a child. This is especially the case if the Post office is having some trouble along the way. Truly wish that could deliver them myself if was feasible, not only to make sure done quickly and the way I would like done, but to actually see the reactions when the Webkinz are received. Words from the new families are one thing and we greatly appreciate them, but realize it isn't the same as seeing your special someone when their eyes light up and are filled with excitement. So we do our best to use our imagination as that is what we all have. We will ship these Webkinz within 48 hours and if at all possible to our customers within 24 hours. Besides our main warehouse, our employees (friends) believe strongly in family and the importance of what we are trying to achieve, so we are blessed to have such a wonderful team." Buy Webkinz Worldwide is definitely a fresh breath to see in a new company and especially that of an online company, which seems so rare these days. They appear to have found a great formula and it starts out with their little elves keeping them on schedule at the core. No company is ever perfect and by no means does Alan claim his to be. In fact he seemed to downplay any such talk. Now that is truly a great company that they are humble enough to not toot its own horn.
